Description

This curious relatively new country farmhouse sits in approximately 1600m of matured gardens. Wide selection of fruit trees includes oranges, lemons, olives and almonds. The main home consists of one very large bedroom of about 40m², traditionally open living area with fire place and kitchen area and a large family bathroom.

The basement has a separate external entrance and comprises large garage and two additional large storage rooms. At the bottom of the garden there is an additional spacious shed and a covered barbeque area. The property is completely fenced and has a small pool.
